

Certified Public Accountants

Lindquist, von Husen & Joyce LLP is a dynamic public accounting firm that provides audit, tax and business advisory services to local Bay Area businesses, real estate developers, property managers and nonprofit organizations. LvHJ is one of the premier public accounting firms in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Our LvHJ team has . . .

- frequent feedback on their performance;
- regular opportunities to work directly with, and learn from, experienced principals and partners;
- routine onsite CPE, company-paid offsite CPE, reimbursable CPA exam costs, and higher education reimbursement;
- flexibility to set their own work schedules and work remotely, to balance their work and their personal lives;
- casual attire which includes jeans any day of the week; and
- a stocked breakroom, an employee lounge with flat screen tv and games, happy hours, and company events throughout the year.

What would you be doing as an Audit Supervisor at LvHJ?

- Coordinating the day-to-day duties of audit engagements, including planning, fieldwork and wrap-up.
- Being accountable to the engagement manager for the day-to-day audit work and ensuring that all field work is on schedule and completed as planned.
- Assisting the engagement manager in gathering information to prepare for the audit strategy.
- Working closely with the engagement manager to develop the budget and identify resources for the engagement.
- Applying knowledge of GAAP and GAAS.
- Acting as client contact for basic questions and information; communicating financial statement disclosure requirements.
- Supervising a team of audit professionals; providing coaching and mentoring to audit staff as appropriate.

What does it take to work as an Audit Supervisor at LvHJ?
