Q&A with Steve Robertson: LvHJ's New Tax Principal & Department Head

Lindquist, von Husen & Joyce LLP (LvHJ) is pleased to announce that Steven J. Robertson, CPA has taken on a Principal role and will serve as the new head of LvHJ's Tax Department. Please join us in congratulating Steve!

Q1: What makes this firm unique in your opinion?

Steve: I value close working relationships I have with my colleagues here at LvHJ. Our team also strives to build and foster close relationships with our clients, while providing high level of services they can expect from Big 4 CPA firms. We as a firm share the same goals and continue to build on our long history and reputation for providing results-driven services.

Q2: What do you consider as your strengths?

Steve: Clients can count on my 20 years of experience in a wide variety of industries and tax issues and my commitment to providing the best client service at all times - by responding to their inquiries and providing practical advice and assistance in a timely manner, even if it is outside of the typical business hours. I always try to understand issues from clients' perspectives so I can make sure to provide the best answers and solutions for them.

Q3: What do you enjoy while working with clients?

Steve: Sharing successes with our clients as well as my team is rewarding because it is always a joint effort. I take pride in knowing that I can have a positive impact on something that is very personal to our individual clients and business clients' growth. Loyalty goes both ways and we work hard to deliver on our promises to meet and exceed our clients' expectations.

If you have any questions or need assistance with individual or business tax issues, please feel free to contact Steven J. Robertson, Principal, at srobertson@lvhj.com or (415) 905-5420.
